

TALENTED TEAM CLINCHES HFS MILBOURNE CUP

HURTWOOD Park Polo Club, Ewhurst provided the setting for the finals of the HFS Milbourne Cup, when two talented young teams, Uber Polo and Cuervos Negros, battled it out in a seven-goal final, with Cuervos Negros claiming the title.

Guests of the Guildford-based financial adviser cheered on the teams and enjoyed some thrilling, fast-paced action.

Highly respected players entertained onlookers with their skilful play and fast pace. The multi-cup winning ex-England polo captain Tarquin Southwell was the commentator for the afternoon and also provided guests with a colourful insight into the world of international polo.

"We are back at Hurtwood Park for a second year, having once again sponsored a Challenge Cup tournament with the Club.

"It was a pleasure to relax with colleagues, clients and business associates in the sunshine amid the Surrey Hills and we have enjoyed some very exciting play at Hurtwood, which at times was captivating," said Rod Milne, joint managing director.
