JUSTIN Urquhart Stewart, the highly-regarded financial commentator and former City Personality of the Year, is in Guildford next month as keynote speaker at an investment seminar for local lawyers hosted by the area's leading wealth management company, HFS Milbourne.

The event takes place on Wednesday October 15, at G Live! Guildford and runs from 9am to 2.30pm, with complimentary refreshments and lunch provided. Justin will look at the investment markets and provide an economic update after which will follow a Q and A session.

Well-known

Justin is a well-known media figure and a regular contributor on financial affairs to the BBC and Sky News.

He has a keen interest in broadening the appeal of the investment markets to both private investors and SMEs and was involved in the original development of the AIM market and the investor educational company, Proshare.

Justin is the co-founder of Seven Investment Management, which manages around £6.6bn of assets on behalf of wealth managers and other professional intermediaries.

Delighted

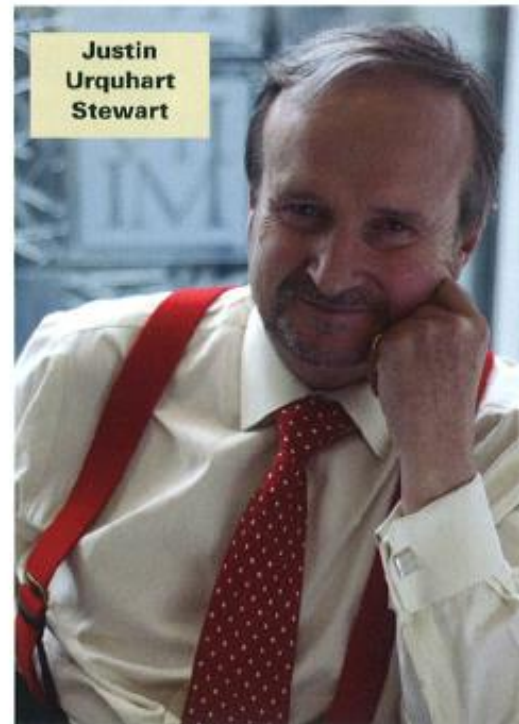

"We are delighted and privileged to have Justin in attendance and we will no doubt benefit from his insightful comments on market sentiment and investment prospects, both for the UK and the wider world," said Rod Milne for HFS Milbourne.

The programme includes an address from Iain Halket, chair of HFS Milbourne Investment Committee, on modern portfolio management and a post-Budget pensions update from Edward Nice, chartered financial planner at HFS Milbourne.

"This event will be of interest to all lawyers who need to be well versed on financial rules and regulations in order that they can best advise clients, particularly those specialising in private client work and also family lawyers who advise couples going through a family breakdown," said Sue Seakens, Surrey Law Society.
