

DJ CATS CLAW THEIR WAY TO VICTORY IN HFS MILBOURNE CUP

POLO teams the DJ Cats and Boscom battled it out in the finals of the inaugural HFS Milbourne Cup, which took place at Hurtwood Park Polo Club, Ewhurst.

Guests of HFS Milbourne, the Guildford-based financial adviser, turned out in force to watch these talented mixed teams in action in what was a hard fought match, with the DJ Cats only securing victory in the final minutes of play.

Top England players Claire Donnelly and James Glasson impressed onlookers with their skilful play and fast pace, while England team mate Tarquin Southwell provided the running commentary. He captivated guests with an introduction to the 'sport of kings', complete with props and colourful anecdotes from the intriguing world of international polo.

Back row second from left: Rod Milne, HFS Milbourne; far right - Colin Hayden Cook, HFS Milbourne; centre - Kenney Jones, founder Hurtwood Park Polo, with DJ Cats (in white shirts) and Boscom polo teams

Rod Milne, joint managing director of HFS Milbourne, said: "If you consider that you can fit nine football pitches into one polo pitch you can really appreciate the skill and stamina of the players and the ponies. Polo is a great spectator sport and the speed, strength and manoeuvrability of the ponies is quite a spectacle.

"The event has been an excellent opportunity for us to relax with our colleagues and business associates in an informal environment, the perfect way to spend such a fine summer's day."

HFS Milbourne Financial Services is authorised and regulated by the FSA, and specialises in wealth management, pensions, finance on divorce, employee benefits and corporate financial planning.

Set in 180 acres of outstanding natural beauty in the Surrey countryside, Hurtwood Park Polo Club was founded by Kenney Jones, the former drummer with rock bands The Small Faces, The Faces and The Who.